

Media Release

7 December 2006

TTF Australia (Tourism & Transport Forum) Corporate Leadership Awards

TTF Australia (Tourism & Transport Forum) recognised tourism, transport and infrastructure industry excellence at its second Corporate Leadership Awards held in Sydney.

Cleanevent are proud to announce their success in the category of Industry Innovation & Best Practice. The award recognising Cleanevent for outstanding demonstration of innovative best practice in national and international operations, servicing the major events industry.

TTF Managing Director Christopher Brown said

"The TTF Australia Corporate Leadership Awards showcase world best practice in areas as varied as corporate social responsibility, public affairs excellence and public sector management."

"These awards are the first and only of their kind and all recipients are to be applauded for the significant contribution that they make to their industry and the community."

For further information contact:
Diane Gaddie
dianeg@cleanevent.com.au
+6139684 9500